The Queen Disapproves of Granville's Action

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Queen's disapproval of Mr. Granville's action in the case of the Russian ship is reported to have been expressed to the Cabinet by Mr. Granville's reply to Russia.

John Russell was not present.

The Morning Post, per contra, says Russia must not resort to a war against her ally.

The feeling in England to-day is somewhat more peaceful, but there is still a strong and determined excitement. Securities at the Stock Exchange are lower, and breadstuffs higher.

Russia and Prussia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—The Gaiety of this city has been entirely lost since the news of the Russian ultimatum to the treaty of 1866 was set aside. Russia only on a charge of a violation of the treaty, and the treaty is now being considered as a nullity.

The American Policy and the Eastern Question.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The American policy in the Eastern question is reported to be in favor of Russia, and that Austria is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

English War Preparations.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Secretary for the Admiralty has ordered the armaments of the fleet to be increased. The Government has hastened the port and channel fleet to the Mediterranean.

Italy Declines to Join the Movement.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Italian Government has declined to join the movement in support of Russia, and has expressed its sympathy for the Russian position.

The American Pamphlet Suppressed.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—A pamphlet published by the American Government, which was intended to be distributed in Russia, has been suppressed.

The Austrian Reply to Russia.

VIENNA, Nov. 19.—The Austrian reply to the Russian ultimatum is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Austria is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

War Preparations Intensified.

THE ALGER. Forts and batteries in Algeria have been strengthened, and the army has been increased.

The Position of Italy.

ROME, Nov. 19.—The Italian position is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Italy is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

The Feeling at St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 19.—The feeling in St. Petersburg is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Russia is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

The Russian Reply to England.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Russian reply to the English ultimatum is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Russia is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

The Russian Reply to Prussia.

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—The Russian reply to the Prussian ultimatum is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Russia is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

The Russian Reply to Austria.

VIENNA, Nov. 19.—The Russian reply to the Austrian ultimatum is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Russia is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

The Russian Reply to Italy.

ROME, Nov. 19.—The Russian reply to the Italian ultimatum is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Russia is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

The Russian Reply to the United States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The Russian reply to the American ultimatum is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Russia is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.

The Russian Reply to the Ottoman Empire.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19.—The Russian reply to the Ottoman ultimatum is reported to be a firm and determined one, and that Russia is a firm ally to St. Petersburg and also to Berlin.
